Whereas, Mentorships offers mentors an opportunity to give back through helping a scholar study for a test, learn a new skill, lift their heads up after a setback or helping mentees achieve their goals;

Whereas, Mentors can inspire mentees to give back and provide the same support to someone else in need of a mentor, which can create a cycle of giving back.

Whereas, Mentorships provide benefits to the children and youth served, such as improved academic achievement, self-esteem, social skills and career development and reduces the likelihood of substance abuse and other high-risk behaviors; and
